Red Cross to Aid In Flood Relief Work

Local Chapter in Call for Money to Send to Santa Paula

Proceeds from Wistaria Fete On Friday to Go to Local Fund

The local Red Cross Chapter has swung into action on the San Francisco Canyon Dam flood relief project, and is calling for donations of money and clothing to be relayed to the hundreds of Santa Paula valley residents whose homes were swept away in the disaster of Monday night.

Already many checks have been received, some for fifty and $100 dollars each, but much money is needed to assuage the suffering of those in the devastated area, many of whom have lost not only homes and personal belongings, but loved ones as well.

Tuesday noon, after communication had been re-established, word was received from Ventura, five miles west of the Santa Clara River, that newspaper accounts and radio reports had not been exaggerated and that conditions were beyond description.

Along the river channel on the south side of Santa Paula, where Monday afternoon there stood a pleasant little community of modest homes, today there is a waste tract, with not a single building left standing. And residents of that community, clothed in miscellaneous garments from the early offerings of the Red Cross, are desperately searching among the wreckage for treasured keepsakes.

All proceeds from the Wistaria Fete for Friday, March 16, will be turned over to the Red Cross, it was announced by the Woman's Club, and it is hoped that other organizations and individuals in this city will follow suit, and swell the fund for the relief of the homeless.

Donations may be made thru W. R. Humphries, president of the Red Cross chapter, the News office, or Mrs. Barker, city nurse.

Among those who have already donated cash are Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Farnham, $50; City of Sierra Madre, $100; Mrs. J. A. Stimpfling, $2; J. E. Carpenter, $5; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Burns, Jr., $5; R. O. Calkin, $3; Louis Dietz, $5; Mrs. F. K. Miller, $10; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Humphries, $5; Mrs. R. A. Pratt, $10; Gordon R. Brooks, $250; Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Quick, $5; Harold E. Allen, $10; Mary L. Sinnott, $10.

Roberts Market Wins Approval Former Patrons

With a patronage that spoke volumes for the esteem in which the proprietors are held in this city, the new Roberts Vegetable and Fruit Market on Central Avenue was opened for business last Saturday morning. Thruout the day old-time friends and customers stopped at the store to welcome the Roberts back to the business life of the city, and many new patrons were added to the "rolls."

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts conducted the vegetable department of a local store over a considerable period of time and gained many regular customers because of the quality of the goods sold by them, a quality which never varied, always being the best the market afforded. Thru the cancellation of their lease they were compelled to give up their business in Sierra Madre for a time, but when they were able to secure the new location on a long-time lease they lost no time in closing negotiations.

The new market is one of the most modern in a country which boasts the finest markets in the world, and is a welcome addition to the city's business circle.

Local Officers Go To Saugus to Help With Rescue Work

Officers Gordon McMillan and Bill Richards, and Gordon Brooks assisted in the rescue work at Saugus last Wednesday, when they searched in the creek bottom for bodies of the victims of the broken San Francisco Canyon dam. The did not get into the Fillmore and Santa Paula region, being kept near Acton Junction on the Ridge Route.

KIWANIS TAKE GARMENTS TO RED CROSS AT SAUGUS

While an entire nation is gazing in horror at the little valley of the Santa Clara River, the rescue work of that nation's "mother," the Red Cross, is being carried forward thru hastily established sub-stations thruout the stricken area, and donations are pouring in from all parts of the country.

Wednesday night G. I. Farnham and Tom Tyler, representing the local Kiwanis club, gathered a car load of garments and drove with them to the Red Cross station at Saugus, where they were gratefully received. According to the local men, the reports that too many clothes have already been sent in, are not true. Garments of the type donated by Sierra Madrans are badly needed, and the warm sweaters, coats, women's and children's dresses and leather boots were distributed at once.

The Kiwanians were not able to see the desolation in the valley, but did see the pitiful line of refugees whose homes were swept away by the rushing waters which descended in the night, wiping out the cheerful farm homes in its path.

Hopi Indians Are Topic of Kiwanis Talk

Speaker Pays Tribute to the Integrity of First Americans

Harry C. James of Pasadena gave the Kiwanis Club a highly entertaining picture of life among the Hopi Indians of the Painted Desert region of Arizona at their Tuesday luncheon. Mr. James has been making journeys to Oraibi and other Indian villages for a number of years, acquiring an intimate knowledge of the people and their customs.

The Hopis were described by Mr. James as a people of gentle, poetic traits, in whose life ceremonial and religious rites enter into every daily activity. By nature they are clean and upright, in his opinion the highest type of the American Indian. It is when contaminated by contact with the white man, or when made the victims of the white man's cruelty and injustice that the Hopi begins to appear in an unfavorable light. Mr. James cited instances of abuse by an ignorant and irresponsible missionary with a political pull which had disastrous effects. This particular missionary represented some obscure sect, he said, and was not typical of Indian mission and school work in general.

Efforts to protect the remaining Hopis and conserve their rights should be made before it is too late to prevent early extinction, said Mr. James. He is the head of the Trailfinders, an organization for boys which is designed to encourage interest in the mountains and deserts of the west and to stimulate a wholesome outdoor life. He was introduced by Jack Hosford, program chairman for the day.

The Kiwanis luncheon was held at the Wistaria Fete, where the members enjoyed the delicious chicken patte menu served by the club women. President Tasker Webster announced that next Tuesday's meeting would be held at the same place.

Plans for Annual Masonic Ball Are Being Discussed

Plans already taking shape indicate that the annual ball to be given by the Masonic Lodge on Tuesday night, April 10, will be a highly colorful occasion. In accordance with previous custom this will be an invitation affair. A special feature will be made of cards this year, with the play going on in the lodge room while dancing is in progress in the ball room of the Masonic Temple. The date was selected some weeks ago as the earliest available after Lent, and a large attendance is expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Goldbery of 161 North Adams Street are the parents of a son, born Sunday, March 11.

Judge Thayer Is Candidate For Trustee

Platform Based on Experience as Attorney and Judge

Al Myers Enters Ranks Of Candidates for Job on City Council

Judge Wilbur F. Thayer has announced his candidacy for a seat on the city council, having been urged to do so by a number of friends. Judge Thayer is an attorney, with offices in Los Angeles. His home is in Sierra Madre, where he is a member of the local Legion Post.

Mr. Thayer has had wide judicial experience, having practiced law for fifteen years, and was first admitted to the bar in South Dakota in 1915. In the same year he was elected judge of the city court of Webster, county seat of Day county, South Dakota, to which office he was re-elected in 1917.

Although over draft age, and holding an elective office when the United States entered the war, he resigned his office and enlisted in the U. S. navy, and for four years was in the service as a seaman. His duties during the war covered a wide field. Because of his legal training and record in his profession, the government assigned him many duties, and he was appointed counsellor in many cases for men awaiting action. He was commissioned ensign by competitive examination. He supervised contracts for the navy covering millions of dollars, and appeared as counsel in a number of cases. He was also appointed special judge advocate, first naval district, and received a commission as lieutenant. He was later appointed as a member of the general court martial, Boston Navy Yard, by the secretary of the navy.

He is a member of the Massachusetts Bar Association, and from the time of being relieved from active duty in 1919 until removing to Sierra Madre he practiced law in Boston. He was admitted to the United States Supreme Court in 1925 and to the California Bar in 1925.

Al Myers, encouraged and persuaded by a large following of friends, has announced that his name will appear on the ballot for city trustee, but outside of that brief statement, has made no other announcement.

His campaign varies from most political "projects," in that he has no platform other than "just being neighborly, that's all," and so far he has refused to cast obliquity on any of the other candidates or pin any decorations upon himself.

Mr. Myers has not stated whether he desires the long or short term office, and refuses to make any promises as to the things he will do if elected. Mr. Myers is proprietor of the tire shop on West Central.

Boy Scouts Plan Merit Badge Meet

San Gabriel Valley Lads to Join In Gigantic Exposition

Boy Scouts of Sierra Madre and the San Gabriel Valley, backed by the service clubs in this district, will stage their first annual merit badge exposition at Pasadena on April 27 and 28.

The Pasadena-San Gabriel Valley Council, Boy Scouts of America, comprises six districts, 83 troops and 2008 individual Scouts. Virtually all of the 83 troops in the council will participate in the exposition.

The exposition will be sponsored by the United Service Clubs of Pasadena with the cooperation and assistance of service clubs thruout the San Gabriel Valley.

Complete details of the exposition have not been worked out as yet, but enough has been done to assure that the event will be one of the biggest and finest affairs of the sort ever held in this section. It will be staged in a huge tent on the site of Pasadena's proposed new municipal auditorium at Green Street and Garfield Ave. Through this tent will be ex-

Funeral Service Held Wednesday For Miss Adams

Funeral services were held on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock from Grant's undertaking parlors for Miss Idella Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Adams. Miss Adams, who was 28 years old, passed away at the home of her parents, 257 North Wilson Avenue, Monday morning at 6:30, after a prolonged illness.

She had been a resident of Sierra Madre for the past four years, coming here in search of health. The services Wednesday morning were conducted by the Rev. W. D. Ogg of the Bethany Church.

Theatre Story Stirs Interest

Considerable interest was aroused by an item in a Sunday paper telling of the impending erection of a $35,000 theatre in Sierra Madre, to have a seating capacity of 400. The plans were said to have been completed by H. Thompson and C. N. Olsen of Los Angeles, and D. Long and Co., were named as the contractors. None of the persons named seems to be known in Sierra Madre, and no information is available locally concerning the enterprise.

School Laws To Be Heard Wednesday

Parent-Teacher Assn. Asks Member of Board to Make Talk

J. O. Smith to Present School Situation to Interested Mothers

As a secondary step in the recently introduced program to learn more of the state laws under which public schools are operated, the members of the Parent-Teacher Association have secured J. O. Smith, member of the local board of education, to address them at the meeting Wednesday afternoon, March 21.

The meeting will be held in the kindergarten room of the school at 2:30, and will be preceded by an executive board meeting at 1 o'clock. At a recent session of the organization, it was decided to look into all possible angles of the school situation, especially in regard to the junior high school question, and to the laws which govern the establishment of such schools.

The program as arranged for Wednesday afternoon will include music by the pupils of the school, under the direction of Miss Pfahler, instructor in music, and instrumental selections by the pupils of Gustav Rihard.

The report of a committee, appointed recently to investigate state school laws, will also be heard. It was concluded by association members that questions and complaints against the present school system could be more readily and convincingly met providing the mothers were armed with correct information concerning the situation, and it was to this end that the "education" campaign was instigated.

Legion Posts to Plant 100 Trees

At a recent meeting of the Association of City Planners at the Wilshire Hotel, Beverly Hills, it was announced that the Legion post of Santa Monica would donate and plant one hundred trees within the city limits of that city.

This move, it was explained, was in compliance with a request from national headquarters that each Legion post in the nation plant one hundred trees in the community in which it operated. Commander R. R. Moreland of the local post states that he has heard of the move, but that no direct request has been made of the local post to join in the move.

C. R. Combs, a recent arrival in the west, has purchased a lot on Bonita Avenue, thru the offices of W. R. Humphries and W. J. Neale, and plans to improve the property soon.

Hibits and demonstrations exemplifying most of the 75 vocational endeavors for proficiency in which Boy Scouts are awarded merit badges. There will be special demonstrations, entertainment and unique features each afternoon and evening.

Park Theatre Suggested to City Council

Plans for Open-Air Stage Are Presented at Meeting of Trustees

$3000 Project Is Referred to Committee of Whole by Council

Plans for an open air platform for the purpose of presenting summer programs in the park and for union church services during the warm weather have been drawn up and are being considered by the city council, preliminary action being taken at the meeting of that body Tuesday night.

The plans, sponsored by Oscar Selling, president of the city planning commission, and W. R. Humphries, were put into tangible form by R. M. Finlayson, local architect, who designed the new city hall. The plans, it was stated, are but tentative. They include a stage, open from two sides, so that a large number of people, seated in the park might enjoy the programs without discomfort, dressing rooms for the performers, and the usual stage equipment.

The programs, presented last year by the chamber of commerce committee, drew vast crowds and proved of interest to the entire community during the months it was too warm to enjoy indoor performances. It has been suggested that union religious services in the open might also prove popular in Sierra Madre where there facilities to warrant such undertaking.

The entire project would cost less than $3000, including the lighting, according to Mr. Humphries, who states that there is money in the park fund at the present time to take care of the initial expense.

Following a discussion of the matter Tuesday evening, it was referred to the committee of the whole.

Men Join In Opening New Social Hall

C. F. Martin Tells Community Club of Opportunity for Development

With a varied program of great interest the Men's Community Club held its first meeting in the social hall of the new Congregational Church last night. The large group in attendance was not only representative of the membership of the church, but of other churches and of those having no church affiliation.

The aims of the club were explained briefly by the president, George B. Morgridge. He said especial emphasis would be placed on the opportunity for making the new hall a center for physical recreation and fellowship. Membership would involve no obligation for activity in any particular line, and groups would be formed within the club so that there will be a variety of choices offered. One of the first things will be to sponsor a program placing the recreational facilities at the disposal of the boys.

The program opened with a group of solos played by Walter Heber. Mr. Heber's instrument, the baritone, is one of the most important in a concert band but is not often heard as a solo instrument. The beautiful tone secured by Mr. Heber and his interpretations made a hit with his audience. Gus Rihard's accompaniment was also delightful. The piano's need of tuning was a handicap to both soloist and accompanist.

In view of the service program to be undertaken by the club it was fitting that the address of the evening should be given by Cecil F. Martin, director of physical education in the Pasadena schools. Mr. Martin is a forceful speaker, with very definite ideas and convincing logic. He congratulated the community upon having such a plant available as that now being provided in the social hall which will be available for gymnasium use, with showers and locker rooms in connection. The opportunity is one deserving careful planning and the assumption of a large measure of responsibility.

ANCIENT TOWER BELL RINGS MESSAGE OF WELCOME TO CHURCH

For thirty-four years the old bell on the Congregational Church has been sending forth its message with every stroke of the clapper against its sturdy metal side, but few in the community have understood. Friday of last week the bell was moved to the tower of the new building under the direction of R. S. Corlett, and under the dirt and rust of the years was found this inscription:

"May 1, 1893. Congregational Church, Sierra Madre, Cal. 'He that hath ears to hear let him hear, and let him that heareth say come!'" The inscription has been brought to the attention of members, who had before heard it as a tone, but who now heard its message, "Come, Come!"

The bell was cast by the Meneely Bell Company of Troy, New York, and few people, if any, remembered that it had been inscribed.

Miss Alpha Whitcomb of Philadelphia, has purchased, thru the office of W. R. Humphries, a lot on Ramona Avenue, and expects to start building shortly.

Dam Victims Are Brought To Mortuary

Bodies Lie in Local Chapel Awaiting Word from Relatives

Entire Family, Wiped Out by Flood, Brought to Sierra Madre

Bodies of the C. J. Mathews family, victims of the San Francisco Canyon dam disaster, have been brought to Moreland's Mortuary in Sierra Madre, and funeral arrangements are being held up while a search is made by an uncle for the remaining members of the ill-fated family, the two young sons.

The terribly battered bodies of the mother, Mrs. C. J. Mathews, age 36, her daughter Velma, 12, the baby, Carl James, Jr., 2, and a niece Miss Vida Mathews of Lynwood, who was visiting at the time of the flood, had been recovered before Wednesday and were brought to Sierra Madre together.

The body of the father was identified Thursday in the improvised morgue at Fillmore, and was brought here Thursday afternoon. The two sons have not yet been found, but there is scant hope that they may be found, alive, it is reported.

The family was stationed at the power house, near the Carey ranch in the canyon, the building being one of the first to be struck by the plunging wall of death, unloosed by the weakened dam. The body of W. W. Neilson, Sr., of Red Lodge, Montana, is also at the Moreland Mortuary, awaiting instructions from relatives.

Aviation Talk to Be Given Tuesday

"The Romance of Aviation" will be the subject of a talk to be given before the Masonic Lodge next Tuesday night by Walter W. Alley. This is the second of the series of programs on topics of general interest outside the realm peculiar to Masonry, which is planned for the year's educational work.

Mr. Alley, who is a resident of Sierra Madre, is connected with the office of the city engineer of Los Angeles. He is a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, is an aeronautical engineer and holds a pilot's license. He was for some time connected with the Douglas Aircraft company and will be able to give his hearers much that will be of interest on this subject of prime current importance.

Convers L. Twycross, master of the lodge, announces that this will be purely a social occasion (stag) to which members of the fraternity are invited to bring their friends.

Mrs. Therese Fryberger of Long Beach arrived Saturday and will make her home with Henry Gregor for the summer. Mrs. Fryberger and Mr. Gregor are brother and sister.

Hundreds of People Visit Unique Vine

Wistaria Fete Draws Crowds From All Parts of Southland

Bright Weather Is Welcomed By Members of Local Woman's Club

Sun glinting thru the hanging blossoms of the wistaria vine in the Fennel gardens, was welcomed by the Woman's Club Thursday, the first really bright weather since the opening of the fete last Saturday. Although Sunday was an exceptionally fine day from the standpoint of financial returns and the number of visitors, the high fog entirely shut out the sun.

On Thursday a large number of visitors took advantage of the perfect Southern California day and came from all parts of the country to view the home and gardens, entirely overhung by the long strands of purple blossoms.

Sunday was a banner day, according to Mrs. William Lees, who with Mrs. Walker, is in general charge of the fete. On that day the total money taken in fell just a few cents short of $1000, and with the $135 which the Comrades Club of the Congregational Church earned as parking tips, the thousand mark was passed.

While the visitor is struck by the beauty of the unusual vine, which has been trained to cover both the front and back gardens, trellis fashion, admiration for it does not surpass that given to the smoothly running machine which handles the enormous number of guests in the smoothest smoothest possible manner.

There is no sense of crowding and hurry, which would spoil the effect of the occasion in a second. Not even at the noon hour, when dozens of people are taking lunch at the prettily decorated tables, does there seem to be a strained atmosphere. The natural beauty and serenity of the gardens are unmarred by a commercial aspect, which an imperfectly managed organization would lend.

At the entrance to the garden and directly opposite the parking space, which has been so ably handled by the lads of the Comrades Club for the benefit of the new church building, is the booth where hand-tinted pictures of the lovely vine may be procured. To the left of the walk marmalade and candied fruits are sold, while just around the bend one catches the full beauty of the vine itself.

Tables are arranged on the grassy terrace, overhung by its fragrant canopy of blossoms, and at these tables, luncheon is served, cafeteria style. With this charming terrace as a foreground, the Chinese tea room is one of the most interesting spots on the grounds. Especially attractive is the side porch, overlooking the garden, and here are arranged the brightly lacquered tables. Dainty Chinese maids serve tea from ancient services, the while the delicate fragrance of the wistaria blossom is wafted from below.

Mingling with the perfume of the blossoms, is the scent from the perfume booth, the wares arranged in the circular arbor. The amber and lilac of the liquid in the odd-shaped bottles blends perfectly with the setting.

Continuing along the circular walk to the front of the house, the enchanted visitor finds colorful plaques for sale. Candy may also be secured, delectable homemade fudge in many flavors, all reasonably priced.

Many private parties have been entertained at luncheon, and have sampled the delicious chicken pie specials offered by the club women, while among the distinguished guests have been Mrs. William Gibbs McAdoo and Louise Dresser of cinema fame.

Famous Mission Is Described by Son of Founder

Howard Taylor, son of the founder of the famous China Inland Mission, and his wife were the speakers at the meeting of the Bethany Church Thursday evening on the program prepared by the Missionary Society. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor had a most interesting message to deliver to the large audience, which included the girls of the Eteri, who adjourned the weekly dinner in time to hear the addresses.

Society and Personal

Naval Wedding at San Gabriel

Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Poehler are announcing the approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Poehler, to Ensign C. B. Hutchins of the U. S. Navy. The impressive ceremony will be performed in the Church of Our Savior, at San Gabriel, Wednesday morning, March 21, before a small group of friends and relatives.

The bride-elect has lived in Sierra Madre during the past year, having come here from Minneapolis and where she has a large circle of friends who have sent their greetings. She is a graduate of Minnesota University and a member of Alpha Phi national sorority.

The groom is a graduate of Annapolis, class of '26, and has been stationed on the U. S. S. Pennsylvania, at present off San Pedro. Following the ceremony there will be a wedding breakfast at the home of friends in Alhambra, and later the young couple will leave for Pensacola, Florida, where the groom will be stationed at the naval flying station.

Woman's Society Has Fine Meeting

A social afternoon, planned and executed by the losing side of the recent membership contest, was enjoyed by some fifty members of the Woman's Society of the Congregational Church. The affair was held Tuesday afternoon in the church, with Mrs. Rice and Mrs. Merrill as hostesses.

The St. Patrick's Day motif was carried out in the decorations, with candles and streamers in green, and the games were appropriate to the day. Mrs. Rice read an original poem on "Moving Out of the Little Church" and Mrs. Merrill had prepared an original play, in which all members of the losing team figured. Each actress had written her own lines, and the effect was most amusing.

Auxiliary Women Make Cushions

Twenty cushions, to be placed at the backs of disabled ex-service men and women at the government hospital at San Fernando, were made last Monday night by members of the local Auxiliary unit, and will soon be taken to the hospital.

The Auxiliary members met at the home of Mrs. Hortense Hill on South Baldwin for the evening of work, and at a late hour refreshments were served. Those present were Mrs. L. E. Steinberger, Miss Elizabeth Steinberger, Mrs. Walter Heber, Mrs. Victor Hill and Mrs. Pickett.

Missionary Society To Meet Tuesday

The Missionary department of the Woman's Society of the Congregational Church will meet on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. D. Burbank at 2:00 o'clock. Miss Bassett, a missionary to China, home on furlough, will be the speaker.

Following the program at 3:30 Mrs. Burbank will take the members of the society to the Wistaria Fete for tea.

St. Rita's Will Have Card Party

The one opportunity during Lent to have a social event with the sanction of the church will be taken advantage of by the Altar Society of St. Rita's Church, and a card party will be given Saturday night, March 17. The affair will be in the auditorium, and both bridge and 500 will be played. Many prizes are being offered, and the hostesses, Mrs. Leslie Wynne and Miss Frances Hayes, will serve refreshments at the close of the evening.

Will Entertain Club at Wistaria Fete

Mrs. Fred Griebenow will be hostess at the Wistaria Fete on Saturday, March 17, to the Glendale Women's Chorus, one of the outstanding musical organizations of Southern California and of which she is an active member. The St. Patrick's theme will be carried out in both the luncheon appointments and in the menu.

Informal Dinner As Farewell

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Carlson and daughter Betty are leaving soon for San Clemente, where they will make their home, and Wednesday night they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Steinberger, who presided over a delightfully informal dinner party.

Mrs. Louis Ziegler has just returned from Panama, where she went to witness the marriage of her daughter. Mrs. Ziegler had a most interesting trip, making the trip on the "California."

Jack Hosford is making a daily trip to Los Angeles each morning, attending the school of insurance sponsored by the Equitable Life, and held in the Chickering Building. The course will last three weeks.

Wistaria Vine Draws Many to Tea

Parties, both large and small, too numerous to mention, have been given at the Wistaria Fete since the opening day last Saturday. Not only are local hostesses taking advantage of the opportunity to entertain in the charming setting, but those from neighboring towns are bringing friends to the vine.

The quaint Chinese tea house at the north end of the gardens is proving a real drawing card, and guests are bowed into the oriental interior by a friendly attendant in Chinese costume. Many interesting curios lend "atmosphere," and the service from the brightly lacquered tables is correct in every detail. Cozy tea baskets and attractive cups with china spoons add to the charm of the tea room, operated by Mrs. Homer Glidden and her youthful assistants.

The menu cards are in Chinese, but translations inform Occidentals that they may have either pure Wu Lung (Black Dragon) or Wo Hop (Peaceableness) to fit any mood. There are little imported almond cakes, fortune rice cakes, revealing the secrets of happiness as divulged by the wise old sages of China; Gamholdt, or golden limes, and preserved ginger.

Lunches are also served from 11:30 until 3, and tea, American or Chinese service, from 3 until 5:30. In addition ice cream and cake or orange juice may be procured if desired.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Heber, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. H. Rudd of Los Angeles, motored to San Diego last week end. They visited Tia Juana during their stay in the south.

Miss Charlotte Carter had as her guests last Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Goodale of Honolulu. The party visited the Wistaria vine, having lunch there. Mr. and Mrs. Goodale are on their way to England.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Thackaberry and son John, and Mr. Lockington of Aberdeen, S. D., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe R. Eastwood Sunday.

Mrs. Ralph Stewart, who was operated upon Monday morning for the removal of her appendix, is reported to be getting along nicely. She is at the Pasadena hospital.

Mrs. W. C. Gruit, 111 North Sunnyside, has returned from Santa Clara, where she was called by the death of her mother. The news of her mother's death came as a shock to Mrs. Gruit two weeks ago. Little Joan Gruit stayed with Mrs. Frank Barbour while her mother was away.

Mrs. Jack Buchan and infant son are at their home on West Montecito, having returned from the hospital in Pasadena Monday.

Mrs. F. B. Chamberlain, who has been seriously ill at the Pasadena hospital for several weeks, was brought to her home on West Montecito Avenue Wednesday, where she is slowly recovering her strength.

Mr. Buchan, Sr., who makes his home with his daughter, Mrs. R. M. Finlayson, has been ill for several weeks past, but is now improving.

Modern Priscillas Enjoy Afternoon

A delightful social afternoon was spent by the members of the Modern Priscilla Society Thursday, when they were entertained at the home of Mrs. J. N. Hawks, with Mrs. H. E. Allen acting as co-hostess. At the close of the session, tea was served.

The next meeting of the club will be cancelled on account of the Wistaria Fete, but on the following date, April 5, the Misses Lydia Webster and Flora Vannier will entertain at the home of the former.

Eteri Girls Hold Brief Meeting

Members of the local Eteri Club of the Bethany Church met last night for the usual weekly dinner, but adjourned early to attend the program in the church, when Mr. and Mrs. Howard Taylor from China, spoke.

Miss Mabel Appleby and her mother, who took a cottage at Ocean Park several weeks ago, will move back to Sierra Madre the first of April. They will occupy their home on West Laurel. Mrs. Appleby has been staying at the home of her other daughter, Mrs. Roland Adams, during a recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rimmer, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jensen, Mrs. F. D. R. Moore and Graeme Smith formed a party which motored to the Big Pines for a frolic in the snow. The party left Sierra Madre early Monday morning and returned Tuesday evening.

F. A. Lindlof, 204 Santa Anita Court, left Tuesday for Nevada, where he is transacting business. He will be gone about ten days.

A boatload of Sunkist Oranges leaves for Europe

FIFTY thousand boxes of California citrus fruits were a big year's export volume to Europe even so recently as five years ago.

Last year the California Fruit Growers Exchange alone sold 500,000 boxes of oranges, lemons and grapefruit through its London office.

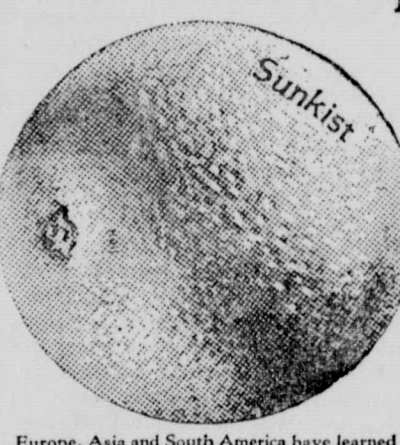

The development of foreign outlets will play an increasingly important part in future Exchange operations. The United Kingdom and many countries of Continental Europe, markets across the Pacific and South America, by absorbing thousands of carloads of Sunkist Oranges and Lemons, will remove that fruit from the channels of domestic distribution. Thus the chances of over-supply in America will be minimized and satisfactory market prices more easily maintained.

The growth in volume of Sunkist foreign sales is not a matter of good luck. It is the reward of constant sales work carried on in a systematic, organized way by the California Fruit Growers Exchange.

Nor is the promotion of foreign shipments the only feature of the Exchange sales expansion program.

The Sunkist electrical fruit juice extractor, manufactured and distributed by the Exchange, provided a new market for 2 1/4 million boxes of citrus fruits last year.

The lemon and orange by-products plants, created by the Exchange for Exchange members, are successfully converting unmerchantable fruit into salable merchandise.

Europe, Asia and South America have learned to ask for oranges stamped "Sunkist"

Retail movement of California oranges and lemons has been greatly stimulated by the work of Exchange dealer service crews. Last year these crews personally visited and helped 65,000 fruit merchants.

Through the advertising and other educational work of the Exchange, the annual consumption of oranges in America has been increased from approximately 3 dozen per person, in 1917, to approximately 5 dozen per person in 1927.

All these services, and many others, the Exchange is performing for its members. They represent extra benefits not obtained through other selling agencies.

If every citrus grower in California sold his fruit through the Exchange, even more could be accomplished. The problem of distribution would be vastly simplified by centralized marketing. Selling costs would be reduced further through the economies of greater volume.

Join the Exchange—become part of it with the 11,000 other grower members who desire to see the California citrus crop efficiently marketed through one central growers' organization.

The Exchange is operated by the growers themselves on a non-profit basis. All of its services (including advertising) cost grower members less per box than the sales expense alone of any other marketing organization.

Talk to the manager of the nearest Exchange association or District Exchange. Or write for further information to California Fruit Growers Exchange, Box 530, Station "C," Los Angeles.

WHAT THE EXCHANGE IS...

The California Fruit Growers Exchange is a non-profit organization of 11,000 California citrus fruit growers, producing about 75% of the California citrus crop, operated by and for them on a cooperative basis. Its object is to develop the national and international market for California oranges, lemons and grapefruit and to provide a central marketing organization that will sell the fruit of its members most advantageously and at least expense. Receipts from sales, less only actual costs of operation, are returned to growers. Applications are received through all of the Exchange's 201 local packing associations, 23 District Exchanges or at the central office in Los Angeles.

Mother's Class to Make Toys—

Toys for the nursery department of the Congregational Church will be made at the next meeting of the Mother's Club, Wednesday afternoon, March 28. At that meeting there will also be a study topic, "Habit Formation."

The group of women gathered in the church last Wednesday, at which time there was a general discussion on the subject, "Goals for Parents."

Entertain Guests at Luncheon—

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Caley had as their guests at luncheon Thursday Mrs. William Sawyer and Mrs. Jessie Martin of Cleveland, Ohio. The women are spending the winter in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Martha Caley and Mrs. Marjorie Adams of Pasadena spent Wednesday at the W. P. Caley home in Sierra Madre.

Bridge Luncheon at Wistaria Fete—

Mrs. Frank Lovell entertained with a bridge luncheon at the Wistaria Fete Thursday, honoring here sister-in-law, Mrs. Daryl Cardell of Coronado, who is leaving April 1st for Honolulu.

The luncheon table was beautifully decorated with spring blossoms, and places were marked for Mrs. W. E. Pratt, Mrs. G. I. Farman, Mrs. Woodson Jones, Mrs. Roland Adams, Mrs. J. F. Sadler, Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson of Hollywood, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Webster of Los Angeles, the honor guest and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Wall and two children of Sterling, Ill., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Schiltz Sunday.

Mrs. A. E. Goebel and family were visitors at the Schiltz home over the week end.

Mrs. W. J. Schiltz entertained Mrs. George Dallas of Monrovia and Mrs. Hoepfel of Arcadia Tuesday.

Friendship Club Has Irish Party—

Mrs. Maybelle Hawkins and Mrs. Walter Heber will be hostesses at the Friendship Club this afternoon, and have planned a St. Patrick's Day party. Games and decorations are suggestive of old Erin and the retreat of the reptiles under the sway of St. Patrick.

Mary Ellen Tartar, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Tartar, has been brought home from the Pasadena hospital, where she underwent an operation last week. She is recuperating nicely.

Mrs. Donald Tarr and children have taken a cottage in the Coachella Valley, near Banning, and will remain there until summer, when Mr. Tarr hopes to join them for a short time.

Dinner Party at the Hartman Home—

A "Pat and Biddy" party is being arranged by Mr. and Mrs. F.

H. Hartman, who have invited fourteen guests to dinner this evening. The house is to be decorated in the green of Old Ireland, and the shamrock will figure prominently on the prettily-appointed dinner table. There will also be an Irish contest, for the amusement of the guests.

Bridge Afternoon Is Enjoyable Event—

An unusual Dutch luncheon, served at the close of the afternoon was an enjoyable feature of the bridge party presided over Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Fred Woehler, at her home here. French bouquets were used in the rooms where the guests were received. Prizes for high score went to Mrs. Victor Hill and Mrs. Jean McDonough.

Guests from Sierra Madre were Mrs. Stella Dennison, Mrs. Hall Perry, Mrs. Victor Hill, Mrs. T. A. DeBolt, Mrs. Jean McDonough and Mrs. Woehler, Sr.

Attend Dinner at San Gabriel—

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hill were guests at a turkey dinner given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Fowble of San Gabriel. The dinner party was arranged for a group of San Gabriel Masons and their wives, and following dinner, bridge was played.

Club Secures Noted Archeologist—

Captain Corlett, archeologist, authority on botanical gardens and former lecturer for the University of California, has been secured as speaker at the Women's Club, under the auspices of the current events section. The program sponsored by this department of the club will be on Wednesday afternoon, April 11.

The speaker will discuss current architectural tendencies, and will outline pre-historic types from which American architecture has developed.

Browning Reading Circle to Meet—

The Browning Reading Circle of Sierra Madre will meet Sunday afternoon at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. Charles A. Bradway, 775 Holliday Avenue, Pasadena.

Luncheon for Long Beach Guests—

A group of Long Beach friends were entertained Thursday at the Wistaria Fete by Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Ferris who presided over luncheon in the artistic tea room. The centerpiece on the prettilyappointed table was of sweet peas in the pinks and orchids, combined with maiden hair fern. Corsage bouquets for the women were also of those flowers.

Places were laid for Mrs. Edward L. Reynolds, Mrs. S. K. Payne, Mrs. Drew Linard, Mrs. Anna Nelson, Mrs. F. S. Jones of Long Beach, Mrs. Homer Glidden, Miss Kathryn Ferris and Mr. and Mrs. Ferris.

Dinner Party Honors Birthday—

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Kieth were guests at a dinner party, given in the Assembly Tea room at Los Angeles last Thursday evening by Mrs. Kieth's brother, Bowman Jewell. The affair was arranged in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Kieth. Following

A TRIBUTE

MILFORD THOMPSON

We who were once neighbors of Milford Thompson wish to express something of our appreciation of him to those who were lately his neighbors and acquaintances. Quiet, modest, unassuming man that he was, he would have disliked anything at all said of himself in eulogy. Yet surely he would not deny us the privilege of reviewing to ourselves, with restraint, the traits in his character which have stimulated in us, and which shall continue to stimulate in us, a better sense of values.

How does it happen that one may hold trivial converse with another and yet gain from him that which is far above the light words spoken? It is difficult to tell how the intangible personality gets such things across thru the physical being. Yet one could not speak with Mr. Thompson without sensing something of his love of justice, of his love of truth for truths' sake, of his quiet sense of humor, his understanding of human nature, his kindly toleration. One felt that he had weighed life and the things of life and that he knew the wheat from the chaff.

Such a person is certain to have a lasting influence on others and it was true of Mr. Thompson. Contact with him soon made one realize he had a breadth of view and a grasp of the fundamental problems of his profession—he was an attorney—seldom met with in modern life. He was a student of law and kept up his study to the very end. It is to be regretted that his failing strength did not permit many to feel the influence of his personal acquaintance. It is to be regretted that his writings could not have been completed and made a permanent contribution to the literature of the law.—R. Bell, Sierra Madre Villa.

dinner the guests were entertained with a musical program at the hotel.

Bridge Evening at Moore Home—

One of the jolly parties of the week was that at the home of Mrs. Eva Moore when she and Mrs. Lilah Kendall entertained a group of friends in honor of Mrs. Marie Stanley. The affair was held Tuesday evening, and bridge was played by the guests.

Following the card games, a delicious supper was served by the hostesses. Those in the party were Mrs. Stanley, Mrs. W. S. Hull, Mrs. Martha Butsch, Mrs. Ray Grant, Mrs. C. F. Young, and the Misses Betty Moore, Jessie Dunning and Laurabel Stanley.

Father Honored at Birthday Party—

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Collins of the Hayden Gardens gave their father, Rev. F. G. Moss, a birthday party on Tuesday evening. The guests were all old time friends and included Mrs. E. G. Mickle of Los Angeles, the Misses Pease, Mrs. J. H. Haswell, Miss Ada C. Haswell and Miss Ida M. Bartlett of Pasadena. Many interesting gift packages were opened and loving words of congratulation were received. After a delightful social evening refreshments were served at midnight and each guest took home a souvenir of the happy occasion.

What is...

"FLAVOR ZONE" Cooking?

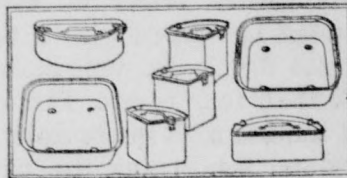

"Flavor Zone" cooking is the browning operation that creates the flavor and tang of a well cooked roast. When the outside of the meat... the "Flavor Zone"... is first browned to just the right degree and the roast then cooked at a lower temperature, the "Flavor Zone" is fully developed and its tastiness spreads through the meat, making it appetizing and delicious.

"Flavor Zone" results are automatic with the Westinghouse Electric Range. Start at once giving your family this new cooking. We have made it possible for our consumers to own and enjoy the Westinghouse "Flavor Zone" cooking for the small down payment of $10.00, balance in modest monthly payments. No extras, just the ten dollar down payment, and your range will be installed in your home.

RESPONSE was prompt and spontaneous in Sierra Madre upon the realization of the terrible need following the St. Francis dam disaster. Without solicitation checks began to come into the News office before any public announcement was made of a local relief fund. They were made out to the Red Cross upon the correct assumption that that body would function as it always has in time of distress. Officers of the Red Cross arranged at once to collect donations of money and clothing for the sufferers, many of whom lost everything they had. The Woman's Club announced that all of today's proceeds at the Wistaria Fete would be turned over to the Red Cross. These things are characteristic of the spirit of Sierra Madre folk. Inasmuch as successive news reports show the extent of the losses and suffering to be greater and greater, the utmost liberality will meet the need none too well.

SWIM! WHEN?

LAST fall the News echoed the sentiment of a number of Sierra Madre citizens in saying it was time to start action on a municipal swimming pool project. The thought was that the pool might be made ready for the coming summer. Nothing has been done except a little investigating by some of the city officials. About the middle of July there will probably be another wave of agitation, stirred by realization of the acute need. Then it will be put aside as being too late for the 1928 season. And our boys and girls will continue to swim in Monrovia, Pasadena, Azusa, Covina and Alhambra. Why not start a campaign now for a pool to be built about 1938?

"Let those who come after me continue to build with the Plumb of Honor, the Level of Truth and the Square of Integrity, Courtesy and Mutuality."—John Wanamaker.

The above sentiment is prominently displayed in the New York John Wanamaker store. It is impregnated with deep meaning; it is a thought worth cultivating in lesser places.

WHY CONGRESSMEN VOTE DRY

THE lower house of congress recently went on record with a test vote on the wet and dry issue, with the dries leading by more than four to one. The issue was forced on a motion of Representative Linthicum of Maryland concerning the use of denatured alcohol, and a roll call was had. The division was strictly along wet and dry lines and shows a considerable dry gain in the past seven years. The vote is significant, not because of the specific legislation involved, but as showing the attitude of the house members in the face of the coming elections. When they cast their votes they were thinking of the people back home, and it is evident they believe dry sentiment is gaining rather than fading away.

TRIAL BY JURY A FARCE

(San Bernardino Sun)

TRIAL by jury is the foundation of the legal machinery of the country. It is fundamental. But supporters of the jury system must view with uneasiness some of the recent verdicts of juries. Six Folsom prisoners, four of whom are already under sentence of life imprisonment, are convicted by a jury of first degree murder for the killing of a guard in a prison outbreak. The jury fixed the penalty at life imprisonment. For four of the prisoners the court procedure terminated in a laugh. They were already serving such a sentence. Either the prisoners were innocent and should have been acquitted or they were guilty and should have been sentenced to death. If the jurors were opposed to capital punishment they perjured themselves by remaining on the jury panel, for they had been asked, before they were accepted as jurors, if they had conscientious scruples against capital punishment. The verdict of this jury was merely an invitation to more prison outbreaks by life-termers. If death is not the penalty for further murders, why not take the chance of killing a guard to escape? The verdict had its immediate consequences. Three days later a San Quentin prisoner stabbed to death a "squealer," who was, incidentally, before his career of crime, a San Bernardino resident.

Some jurors are too easily swayed by matters remote from the question of guilt and the degree of guilt. A judge in Los Angeles was moved to remove from the venire list twelve women who had brought in a verdict of not guilty in a case where guilt was apparent. Citizens serving as jurors have a solemn duty. They sit in the jury box to enforce the law of the land, not to exercise some whim of their own.

CHURCH DIFFERENCES

(Upland News)

WE believe that church union is what a politician once called an iridescent dream. But there can be an approach toward union without limiting the room for personal peculiarities. Bishop Moore of the Methodist Church, South, in an address refers to "sixteen varieties of Methodists, fourteen kinds of Baptists, and a dozen kinds of Presbyterians." He favors a getting together movement.

HOW TRAFFIC MULTIPLIES

(Temple Times)

It is predicted by those who should know what they are talking about that traffic on California's highways will more than double in the next fifteen years. Seems to us it is about time for the Los Angeles county supervisors to get action on that big road fund that is lying idle in the county treasury.

BILL KNEW HIS FRIENDS

(By Edgar A. Guest)

Bill knew his friends before he died,
The crowd that gathers now
To stand in sorrow by his side
And touch his icy brow
Finds him unmoved. No one can speak
A word to stir this placid cheek.

His lips today are cold and dumb,
To love he can't reply,
He waited long for friends to come
And oft he wondered why
So few there were to stop awhile
When he could talk with them and smile.

From time to time some roses came,
And then his eyes grew bright;
He called his every friend by name,
Who sat with him at night.
Today a crowd is here, but oh,
Just who they are he'll never know.

Surrounded by the flowers he lies
Unmoved by all the tears;
For death has sealed his tender eyes,
No word of love he hears.
What matters now the crowd outside?
Bill knew his friends before he died.

FUNERAL ORATION

By Marie de L. Welch

A lady died in our town;
Carve the wood, and grave the stone;
Stretch her straight and lay her down;
And here be words for her renown:

Though her body lieth low,
High and high her soul doth go,
She never said, "I told you so."

Her body lieth with the night,
Her soul disporteth in the light,

She never cried, "It served you right!"

Her body taketh earth's decay,
But her soul walketh heaven's way,

She never whispered, "Well, they SAY..."

Observations

(By G. B. M.)

RAH FOR HOOVER!

As a Democrat, I am free to say I believe Herbert Hoover is the best material in either party for President of the United States and I hope he is nominated and elected. My next choice at present would be Senator Walsh of Montana, but I don't believe he can be elected if nominated by us Democrats.

It is not because Hoover hails from Iowa that I hope he will sweep (this is not advertising) the country, although our native towns were only a few miles apart. One of the reasons I favor Hoover is because so many of the Republican leaders don't want him for president. He can hardly expect popularity with the friends of Fall, Daugherty and Sinclair.

California's rush for the Hoover bandwagon amuses me immensely. So many irreconcilable elements within the Republican party are trying to crash the gates and climb up close to the driver's seat. The diversity of their past history and affiliations would make a funny combination.

Some of these California Republicans are about as congenial as Dr. John Roach Straton and Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick would be in a Sunday school class. It looks to me as if the lion and the lamb were going to lie down together again, with the lion inside the lion as usual. The question is, which element will imperish?

This struggle for control of the California delegation to the Republican convention is the real cause of much of this hoopla for Hoover just now. The diversities just mentioned are so extreme as to suggest that the aim of some of the shouters is not so much the nomination of Hoover as the control of the delegation. If Hoover is nominated on an early ballot, all well and good. But if he cannot be put over, then comes the opportunity for switching and trading. Some other man may be nominated. And in either case the gang (beg pardon, the element) in control of the convention delegation will be most likely to dictate the administration appointments within the state.

Now I don't know much about politics. Just a poor Democrat tryin' to get along. But I find my amusement over this bandwagon struggle is shared by some very keen political observers on the sidelines of the Republican field of action.

Rah for Hoover!

With just about two more chapeaus shied into the local ring, the coming election will begin to take on a real interesting aspect. And it may not even need two more. Oh! for a battle that will bring to life the old torchlights and banners, so that the past may live just once again!

Dropped into a famous downtown cafe the other day with the family to take on a little nutrition. A couple of 1929 flappers followed us right in and sat down at the same table. My! how Lela Joy's eyes popped out when the "young things" got out their cigarettes and started in to pollute the atmosphere! And we thought to ourselves, that if the little girl in our family grows up to be like that it will be a lot of love and care gone to waste. "Flaming Youth" may be all right, but not when there is flame, and smoke—and fire-water—all together.

Yes, they both wore fur coats.

And coming home we followed a big car that hugged the crown of the road in spite of "— and high water." Finally put down a heavy foot and, drawing up even, saw one of those blaze wimmin holding a pastboard ice cream container in her driving hand and eating ice cream with a spoon. Bit a chunk out of the steering wheel and called it a day.

Heard a fellow lamenting over the fact that there are so many traffic accidents. "It's terrible," he said.

Huh! It's a miracle there are not ten times as many!

Bets are even that Hickman will "eat off the public" during the rest of a happy and carefree life. Some day this nation will be furnishing criminals with three squares, forty-dollar mattresses, moving pictures, horses and bridge paths, and all that sort of thing.

In fact, it has already come to pass. If you don't believe it, read up on the "private life" of your favorite bootlegger.

A federal inspector was in the city the other day checking up on sales of a wine tonic. It is said he didn't catch a single dealer in Sierra Madre, but got a couple in Monrovia and two in Pasadena.

Lindy has earned a million since his epochal flight. It's about the first time that anyone who has done anything worth while has capitalized on his endeavors in a long time.

How he could have done it without a strenuous training on a certain brand of cigarettes is something for some folks to worry over.

"G. O. P. Betrayed Nation" says an Arkansas senator. Well, if the present prosperity is the result of a betrayal, we'd better pray for some more of it.

WHO REMEMBERS

When somebody or other swam from an island out in the Pacific to a spot on the North American continent?

Some folks think that weather conditions bring the rains; others believe that Father Ricard and Col. Hersey have something to do with it. Residents of Sierra Madre, however, know it is the blooming of the wistaria vine that brings the rains—especially on Sundays.

It has now approached the time when we should begin to talk about a swimming pool for 1929!

A long, strong pull on the part of enough people will insure an outdoor theatre in the city park for the coming summer season.

Miss Miller of Seattle has embraced the Hindoo religion. Well, what is Christianity's gain is "Hindooism's" loss.

The Maharajah (East Indian for "Big Bum") probably thinks he learned a lot from poor little Mumtaz By-Gum. Huh! He ain't learnt nothin' yet!

Wait till he tries to stay out "with a sick friend" some fine evening. The "Big Bum" of Indoor will make a dash for the outdoor and if he is wise he won't be back—no time.

But that second-hand sugar papa probably won't get his just deserts until he cashes in all his chips and takes a ride with Old Man Charon.

Polar Ice

"In the region around the South pole, Sir Ernest Shackleton found various kinds of ice to which he gives interesting names in his new book, "South." Thus one kind he pictures as "young ice"; another as "light pack"; another as "drift ice." Heavy hummocked pack and close pack are the roughest in appearance, with ragged little crags covering all the surface.

Interesting News Notes from Sierra Madre Canyon

With the beginning of the final stage of the flood control construction work an exodus of the workers has begun. The Callahan Construction company has removed all of the heavier equipment from the stream channel, having in operation at the present time only the small cement mixer being used in the completion of the bridge on Woodland Drive located just above the pool. The contractor announces that the bridge will be completed and ready for traffic in approximately two weeks, the weather permitting. The construction of this bridge marks the end of the work for this season.

Residents living on the east side of the pool and across the channel were delighted when city workmen, under the direction of Street Superintendent Carpenter and Asst. City Engineer Buck, completed a foot bridge at the lower end of the swimming pool. The bridge, which marks the northern terminus of Audubon Way, has been out since the beginning of work on the stream channel.

The recently acquired city tractor received a try-out on Alta Vista Drive last week when a crew of workmen supervised by Mr. Carpenter piloted a scraper over the most dangerous portion of that road. A surprise occurred when the blade of the scraper punctured a hidden water pipe and afforded nearby residents a view of an impromptu geyser. A hurry-up call to the water department brought prompt repairs.

A canyon visitor on Wednesday was City Trustee Belohlavek. Mr. Belohlavek made an inspection of the new Audubon bridge and evidenced a keen interest in all recent improvements.

E. A. Anderson has just completed negotiations with C. W. Park for a lease on the Canyon Store located at 525 Woodland Drive. After completing extensive alterations on the building Mr. Anderson plans moving into the new location where he will handle the same excellent quality of groceries, meats, vegetables, notions, cigars, tobacco, confectionery, etc. that he carried in his former location in the Charles S. Mann building. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will occupy the apartments over the store. Canyon residents were pleased when they learned of the contemplated change as the Canyon Store, which has been vacant for a number of years, has always been considered a canyon landmark.

Laura E. Cadmus has purchased the cottage, "Lone Pine Inn," on Woodland Drive, formerly owned by Mrs. J. H. Burke of Long Beach. The cottage has been occupied by Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Anderson, parents of Mrs. Burke.

Mrs. E. A. Anderson attended the birthday dinner given in honor of her daughter, Mrs. H. B. Paisley of Santa Ana, at the home of Mrs. J. H. Burke in Long Beach on Thursday. Appropriate decorations and favors in the St. Patrick's day motif gave a beautiful aspect to the living rooms in the spacious Burke home. Twelve guests enjoyed the dinner, a feature of which was the ice cream birthday cake artistically decorated with harp and shamrock. Mrs. Paisley was the recipient of many lovely gifts.

Mrs. C. F. Ishoy and sons left the canyon on Thursday for their new home at the Sherman Indian Institute in Riverside, where Mr. Ishoy is an instructor.

William Rumsey, his sisters, Mrs. George Barker and Mrs. A. H. Marshall, and his niece, Miss Roberta Marshall of Long Beach, spent Wednesday at the Rumsey cottage on Brookside Lane.

H. A. Stouffer of Los Angeles spent Monday at his property on Brookside Lane where he has been making many alterations and repairs. The new bridge recently completed at the Stouffer cottages affords direct access to this delightful portion of the canyon. Mr. Stouffer announced that he expects a prosperous season in the canyon, having already leased several of his cottages for extended periods.

C. L. Hoover left on Thursday for Victorville and vicinity where he expects to remain until Sunday.

Mrs. H. C. Reavis spent several days last week in Bakersfield visiting her sister, Mrs. Harry Wilson. Mrs. Reavis returned home on Sunday.

Mrs. Nettie J. Forrest and Mrs. Rebecca Romaine Hill returned to the canyon after a week's absence spent in Los Angeles and Long Beach visiting with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Price of Long Beach spent the week end at their cottage, "Dolly's Folly."

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Toy, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith and daughter Marilyn were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Morris on Sunday.

Mrs. A. R. Haywood visited friends in Los Angeles from Tuesday until Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Beck of Long Beach were visitors at their cottage, "Donovin," over the week end.

Mrs. Leon S. Griswold, treasurer of the Los Angeles Audubon Society, brings to canyon and Sierra Madre residents from Mrs. F. T. Bicknell, president emerita of the Audubon Society, the following announcement regarding the state bird contest, reference to which was made in this column a few weeks ago. "The committee appointed to canvass the fields for candidates for state-bird election has submitted the following list of twenty-two species as possessing the required credentials—a bird typical of California, whose life habits are so valuable and interesting that it is at all times protected by our federal and state laws; a bird that breeds throughout California and is known and loved by the general public": California quail, California woodpecker, red-shafted flicker, Anna Hummingbird, Bullock oriole, greenbacked goldfinch, California brown towhee California Thrasher, canyon wren, wren-tit, California condor, desert sparrow hawk, road-runner, western kingbird California purple finch, black-headed grosbeak, western tanager, Audubon warbler water ouzel, russet-backed thrush, western bluebird and bush-tit, the first ten of which are most favored by the Cooper Ornithological Club as candidates.

Pity the Egotist

The egotist does not take kindly to criticism, yet because of his exalted opinion of himself is over-ready to criticize. He is blind to his own mistakes and shortcomings, stubbornly persisting in chosen courses of conduct even after they have cost him dear and their folly has been pointed out to him.

Only Requires Will Power

Fire Flames

By One of the Boys

We had our little practice at "der school house" Friday night. The boys turned out in uniform and made a perfect sight. First comes our own Chief Richards with his pants all cleaned and pressed and his hair split down the middle—his badge pinned on his breast. He looks a noble hero as he orders us around, his shoulders look like Tunney's and each ear must weigh a pound. Then comes his brave assistant, "Papa" Norris, by the way, who yells a "salty" line of "bull" and always has HIS say. He likes to answer questions and ask them, if you please; I wonder if he answered "Yes" when he went in the Fleas? George brought with him Friday night, a crew of El Sereno men, to show us how they fight their fires and run back home again. They showed us how to fold a hose, and how to lift a ladder. (Lee Hibbs began to demonstrate, Oh! Lord! what could be sadder?) His first attempt was "non liquet" (whatever that may mean), but anyway the next was worse, the worst I've ever seen. Tom Schwartz says, "I'm some folder, just watch me fold that hose." He starts a "bunion derby" and lands right on his nose. Steve Petzel stands back quietly and utters not sound, he offered no suggestions—you'd hardly know he was around. When all the rest had proved a flop with the ladders and the hose, our Captain steps right to the front and hooks the ladder on his nose. Yes, there were other stunts that night too numerous to mention. If I have left you out of this, well—that was my intention. Those boys from El Sereno sure deserve a lot of praise and although I know we're perfect, they have helped us change our ways. They helped us with our practice and they've taught us lots of stuff; we hope to have them back again—we shall never have enough.

Well, let's forget the practice and get back to "Firemen's Ease," where Keegan cooked the coffee and "Red" took us in the "Fleas." We had our usual round of talk, the house was full that night; things went along quite orderly, there was not a sign of fight. We learned that Mrs. Wilkerson had undergone an operation in a Pasadena hospital, we hope it proves a consolation. By some mistake or crook or turn the same was said of Mrs. Babbitt and Bob got so excited that he jumped near like a rabbit. "No! No! Not yet," he said, with fright, "It's not quite quite the time!" The poor gink gave us quite a laugh, tho' his actions were sublime. If Old Dame Rumor speaks the truth, to me it isn't funny, for if it's true, all this we hear, where will we get the money? Well, Keegan's lunch I must admit was very extra fine; his coffee was sup-excellent, no "hair-again" in mine. I'll bet his wife put up that lunch although he didn't say, I know things were too dainty, for his big awkward way. At any rate the lunch was good, the whole crowd had its fill; if we had tried to eat it all, I'm sure we'd be there still.

Now comes the secret mission of the El Sereno boys—initiate us in an order that is heaping full of joys. Before entering thru the portals of the Order of the Fleas, there is much anticipation and cracking of the knees. I hear the ones before me being led around the stairs—everything in utter darkness, a million sad disappearances. Things are very quiet, as I listen at the door; then comes a burst of laughter, I wondered, "Why, what for?" I found out when I got in there and they started riding me, and I answered "Yes," to number one and "No!" to number three. I may have made some mistakes in my answers, I don't know, but I am not as bad as some who at number one said "No!" Jack Wilkerson had some excuse, he really had a reason, he said the country he came from, "Things always were in season." Well, now since we are all good Fleas, let's hop around and do things, when the old siren blows at night, don't stop to tie your shoe strings, just jump into your near-by pants and man your boat and go; give us the "high sign" as you pass and don't be very slow.

Next meeting night is "Ladies' Night," we hope they'll all be there; don't forget your paraphernalia—be careful what you wear. If you are caught without your badge, or worse, without your coat, your wife may have to join the Fleas, and thoroly ride the goat.

I hope you read the ordinance in the Sierra Madre News, disclosing city salaries of all the different crews. The city clerk gets sixty per, I wonder how he lives on such a salary with such an H.C.L. No wonder he cannot retire and live the simple life; therefore he must continue in the struggle and the strife. I hope he gets the job again, for that is not enough for me, I'm not the one that hunts it.

Around the city hall these days there's not so much to learn for no one seems to know a thing when it comes 'round my turn. Jim Carpenter now wears a smile, at last he has a tractor; each day he finds some use for it, a quite important factor.

St. Patrick's Day will soon be here, the southside merchants say it, although there are few Irish there, their windows would display it. Hal Roberts has a fine array of produce at his market and he'll deliver to your car, no matter where you park it.

I see "Old Hump" is back again—he wobbles on his feet—as he continues service in "the bank's across the street." John Carey has an auto now, it is a fine machine; he's not an expert driver yet, so bring your vaseline. Draman must be Irish—now we are glad to hear the news; his window's decorated with green paper on his shoes.

Just keep the good work going, boys, "two hundred seventy feet," if you should have a fire o'er there, we'll run across the street. The big truck's in the engine house, the boys are on their toes, a-rarin' to be helpful, where'er the old truck goes.

My little story, I've got the "High Sign Blues," if you would know what's going on, read the Sierra Madre News. Oh, ten o'clock is striking, I've had my little shout; the house is getting chilly because the

EATING TO LIVE

By Rama V. Bennett, Nutritionist,
County Health Association.

How long one lives after fifty is influenced by how wisely one eats before fifty. "Everything tastes good" is not a safe guide for adults in the prime of life. The appetite of a boy must be accompanied by the activity of a boy. The adult's sport is too often taken by proxy, but his food is not.

Reservoirs of vitality can be greatly depleted if the grown-up does not realize that he is not eating for growth but for efficient maintenance. The goose stuffed with fattening foods and not exercised grows a huge liver for our pate de foie gras delicacy. The internal human organs often suffer irreparably from unwise eating during the years when all seems well.

An adult who leads a fairly active life can easily have his needs of food and appetite balanced. When activity is little and appetite big, a better balance must be struck. Just enough energy foods should be eaten to supply power for a day's work and not store unneeded fat, and only enough protein consumed to keep the muscles and tissues in good repair. Patronize the meat shops conservatively, the pastry shops wisely and the green grocer liberally. Indulge in frequent and generous drinks of pure, cold water. The empty feeling which leads to unwise between meal eating will be relieved and the kidneys aided. Calories count between meals as well as at meals. The tempting sundaes equal several servings of boiled potatoes. Clear, hot soups at dinner reduce the keen edge of hunger, stimulate digestive juices without adding many calories.

Careful checking of weight and regular physical examinations are the only safe guide to the adult who feels "equal to any food." For list of reference books on food and nutrition, write to Los Angeles County Public Health Association, 1700 Michigan Ave., Los Angeles.

THE STRAND

In Fox Films screen version of "Loves of Carmen," Victor McLaglen, who plays the role of Escamille, the toreador, is given ample opportunity to display his remarkable horsemanship. Victor, while serving in the British forces during the world war, attained the reputation of being one of the best riders in the Mesopotamian service. His masterful riding opened the way to Director Raoul Walsh for many spectacular shots which, had McLaglen's horsemanship been of lesser calibre, could not have been attempted. "Loves of Carmen" will be seen at the Strand next Sunday.

THE COLORADO

A regular Orpheum vaudeville program has been arranged to be presented on the Colorado stage this week. Headline acts from all over the country have been concentrated into the new Fanchon & Marco idea, "High Lights," which will play for one week only.

Lynn Cowan will be on the stage with his usual special numbers and novelties and with his band will present several late musical hits.

On the same program the Colorado is presenting Clara Bow in Elinor Glynn's latest novel, "Red Hair," a super comedy directed by Clarence Badger, this trio having also made that other great success "It." There will also be selected short subjects presented on the program, including Arthur Clinton playing the new song hit

Modern Greek Language

The modern Greek language is a dialect of the ancient Greeks, and the literary language of today is a continuation of the main literary dialect of ancient Greece, the Attic, as modified by passing through Byzantine. The modern vernacular is sometimes called Romainic. At the present time there is a tendency among the Greek authors to return more closely to the ancient form of the language.

NOTICE OF ELECTION FOR TRUSTEE OF ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS.

NOTICE is hereby given to the Electors of Sierra Madre City School District, County of Los Angeles, State of California, that the Annual Meeting for the election of School Trustee will be held on March 30, 1928 (last Friday), at the Public Schoolhouse in said district.

There will be one Trustee to elect for three years.

The polls will be open at 9 o'clock A. M., and kept open until 7:15 o'clock P. M.

The officers appointed to conduct the election are: Mildred E. Taylor, Inspector; Ethel H. Hawkes, Judge; Mignonette Gruit, Judge.

RICHARD S. JENSEN, J. O. SMITH, CECILY A. ALLEN, School Trustees,

Sierra Madre City School District. Dated Feb. 16, 1928. 23:25

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE

WHEREAS, by a Deed of Trust executed by C. J. BLISS and BESSIE M. BLISS, husband and wife, therein called Trustors, dated August 10, 1925, and recorded September 1, 1925, in Book 528, Page 341 of Official Records in the office of the Recorder of Los Angeles County, California, said Trustors did grant the property therein and hereinafter described to Title Insurance and Trust Company, a corporation, as Trustee, with power of sale, to secure, among other things, the payment of one promissory note, dated August 10, 1925, made by the said C. J. Bliss and Bessie M. Bliss, for the sum of Eleven Hundred Fifty Dollars ($1150.00) payable two years after its date to the order of Donald S. Masters, a bachelor, with interest from its date until paid, at the rate of eight per cent per annum, payable semi-annually or compounded; and

WHEREAS, said note has been assigned by the said Donald S. Masters to Leveverett S. Webster; and

WHEREAS, said Deed of Trust provides that should breach or default be made in payment of any indebtedness and in performance of any obligation, covenant, promise or agreement therein mentioned, then the owner and holder of said note may declare all sums secured thereby, immediately due, and may require the Trustee to sell the property thereby granted; and

WHEREAS, a breach of, and default in, the obligations secured by said Deed of Trust has occurred in that the principal sum of said note to-wit: $1150.00, which became due on August 10, 1927, was not then paid, nor has any part thereof since been paid; that there is now due, owing and unpaid upon said note the principal sum of $1150.00, with interest thereon at the rate of eight per cent per annum from August 10, 1926, compounded semi-annually, and all sums advanced or expended under the terms of said Deed of Trust, with interest as therein provided; and

WHEREAS, said LEVEVERETT S. WEBSTER, did on November 21, 1927, elect to and did declare that a breach and default had been made as aforesaid and did declare all sums secured thereby then due, and did demand that said Trustee sell the property granted by said Deed of Trust to satisfy the obligations secured thereby; and did on November 23, 1927, file for record in the office of the County Recorder of Los Angeles County, California, a notice of said breach and default and of election to cause said Trustee to sell said property in accordance with the provisions of said Deed of Trust, which notice was recorded in Book 6769, Page 302, of Official Records, Records of said County;

NOW, THEREFORE, notice is hereby given that by virtue of the authority in it vested, as Trustee, the undersigned will sell, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in United States Gold Coin, on WEDNESDAY, the 28th day of March, 1928, at eleven o'clock A. M. in the lobby of the Fifth Street entrance of the Title Insurance Building, corner of Fifth and Spring Streets, Los Angeles, California, all the interest conveyed to it by said Deed of Trust in and to the therein described property to satisfy said obligations, said property being situate in the City of Sierra Madre, County of Los Angeles, State of California, and described as follows:

Lot Nineteen (19) of the Pinney Hotel Tract, in the said City of Sierra Madre, as shown by map recorded in Book 17, page 37, of Map records of Los Angeles County, California.

To pay the principal sum of said note, to-wit: $1150.00, and the interest thereon from the 10th day of August, 1926, at the rate of eight per cent. per annum, compounded semi-annually; sums, if any, advanced under the provisions of said Deed of Trust, the expenses of said sale and also the costs, fees, charges and expenses of the trusts created by said Deed of Trust and of the said Trustee.

Terms of sale: cash in United States Gold Coin, payable at time and place of sale.
Dated March 2, 1928.
